SWIMMER OF THE WEEK

RANDY BUCHANAN
Sophomore • College of Charleston
Mt. Pleasant, SC

Buchanan tallied three first-place finishes and one second-place finish, while also participating in three meet record-breaking relay teams and one second-place relay finish. Buchanan's first event was the 200-yard freestyle relay, where he swam anchor in a split time of 21.09. His team finished first in 1:26.01 and broke the meet record. In his first individual event of the invitational, the 100-yard breaststroke, Buchanan clocked in at 58:58 for a second-place finish, which was good enough for first among all CCSA swimmers. In the 50-yard freestyle, he surpassed 15 other swimmers to finish first with a time of 21:55. Buchanan also contributed to the second-place 400-yard medley relay team that finished in 3:29.43. In his fourth event, the 200-yard medley relay, his team finished first with a time of 1:35.82, and set another meet record in the win. Buchanan continued his winning stride when he competed in the 200-yard breaststroke and reached the wall first again with a personal-best time of 2:08.31, three seconds faster than his previous time. In his last individual event, Buchanan posted another first-place finish in the 200-yard individual medley, clocking in at 1:55.24. In his last relay event, Buchanan anchored for the second time, this time in the 400-yard freestyle relay to help his team set an impressive third meet record with a time of 3:09.59. Buchanan owns four top times in the CCSA, and is also a part of four relays that sit at the top spot in the CCSA.
