SWIMMER OF THE WEEK

STEVEN CAUDILL
Freshman • Gardner-Webb
Elkin, N.C.

Caudill posted two first-place finishes, two second-place relay finishes and broke two school records last week in meets against Davidson, Catawba and Wingate. On Friday, Nov. 9, Caudill immediately started off on a good note, reaching the wall in the 400-yard individual medley in a time of 4:17.02, breaking a school record and topping all CCSA swimmers by nearly four seconds. He then swam the very next event in the 100-yard butterfly and took second, finishing in 53.59 seconds. In Caudill's final event of the day, he contributed to the Bulldogs' second-place finish in the 200-yard freestyle relay, swimming the second leg of the race in a time of 22.07 seconds, which was the third-fastest split time out of all relay swimmers. The following day, Caudill saw similar results, but in different events, as he helped the 400-yard medley relay finish second, swimming a split time in the 100-yard butterfly of 52:42. He then went on to compete in the 200-yard individual medley, finishing second with a time of 2:01.38. Caudill currently leads all CCSA swimmers in this event. He then returned to the pool for the very next event (200-yard butterfly) to defeat ten swimmers with a time of 2:00.37, which breaks another school record and places him fourth in the CCSA.
